

USE OF STUDENT IN PUBLIC INFORMATION PROGRAM

The participation of pupils in interpreting the educational program of the schools to the community shall be encouraged, with the understanding that:

1. Pupils shall not be exploited for the benefit of any individual or group.
2. Pupils shall participate only in appropriate situations.
3. The use of pupils shall always be evaluated in terms of the effect on the child.
4. Pupils shall not solicit or promote school district issues without approval of the superintendent's office.
5. The best possible community relations grow from a superior teaching job in the classroom. Enthusiastic pupils with serious intentions, well directed by sympathetic and capable teachers, are certain to communicate with parents and the community. The Board of Education believes this is the cornerstone of good community relations.

It is permissible to use students for the dissemination of communications from the school to the home and community with the approval of the school principal.
